The current owner says:

Our favourite part of the home is the garden, with its peaceful west-facing aspect, perfect for relaxing and enjoying the tranquillity.

A charming split-level one-bedroom period conversion garden flat, ideally located in the heart of Poets Corner. Split-level flats are a rare find at this end of the market.

The property extends to 511 sq ft and boasts a private west-facing garden, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. It benefits from a recently extended lease and comes with approved planning permission valid until 2027, providing exciting potential to further enhance or extend the space.

Situated on Goldsmith Road, the flat is just moments from Acton Central station and the shops, cafes, and amenities of Churchfield Road. The new Elizabeth Line station at Acton Mainline is also within half a mile, offering fast and convenient connections to central London.

Combining period charm, a rare split-level layout, private outdoor space, and future potential, this property represents a unique opportunity for first-time buyers and professionals.
