Aberlour

Aberlour is a picturesque village nestled in the heart of Speyside, celebrated for its rich whisky heritage and beautiful riverside setting along the River Spey. Home to the world-renowned Aberlour Single Malt, the village combines natural beauty, local character and a welcoming community, making it a sought-after location for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle with excellent amenities. The village offers a good range of local services, including independent shops, cafés and restaurants, ensuring daily needs are well catered for. Education is well provided for, with Aberlour Primary School and nearby Speyside High School serving the area. The surrounding countryside offers abundant opportunities for walking, fishing, and exploring, particularly with the scenic Speyside Way and proximity to the Cairngorms National Park. With a strong sense of community, beautiful surroundings and excellent accessibility, Aberlour presents an ideal place to call home in the heart of Speyside.

Transport Links

Aberlour is well-connected by road, sitting conveniently on the A95 which provides direct access to Elgin, Keith, and Grantown on Spey, as well as onward travel to Inverness and Aberdeen. Regular bus services, including Stagecoach Route 36, link the village with surrounding towns, with stops in the village centre providing easy public transport access for both residents and visitors. Additional routes serve nearby destinations and key distillery sites, supporting the area's strong whisky tourism. Nearby train stations at Elgin, Keith, and Aviemore offer regular ScotRail services to Inverness, Aberdeen, and the Central Belt, connecting the area to the national rail network. Air travel is also within easy reach, with Inverness Airport approximately an hour's drive away and Aberdeen International Airport around 90 minutes by car, both offering a range of UK and European destinations. These transport links, combined with the village's scenic location and vibrant community, make Aberlour an appealing and accessible place to call home.
