This 1st floor retirement flat is located in the popular Merchiston area to the South of the City Centre. The property is conveniently situated with local amenities including Marks & Spencer, Sainsbury's, ASDA and Aldi supermarkets. The Craiglockhart Leisure and Tennis Centre offers excellent recreational facilities and a choice of local walking and cycling routes and golf courses.

Accessed via a secure communal stairwell with lift, the property opens to an entrance hall with a handy storage cupboard and an entry phone handset. The living room is located to the front and has the kitchen off. The kitchen area has base and wall units, and a handy pantry cupboard. The double bedroom has excellent storage benefiting from a built-in mirrored wardrobe, and another built in cupboard. Completing the accommodation is the bathroom which has partially splashboard walls, bath with overhead electric shower, WC, and wash hand basin.

Additional benefits include electric heating, double glazing, well maintained communal gardens and residents parking within the development.

Note: Residents must at least 60 years old and able to live independently.
