Sat back from the road behind an established front garden with mature hedgerow is this fantastic 1930's family home. You step into the entrance from a covered porch, useful for muddy shoes and boots. The entrance hall has fitted understairs storage and offers access to both the living room and kitchen/dining room. At the front is the living room with its bay window feature adding charm and natural light. Beyond and accessed from the entrance hall is the kitchen/dining room. It has an array of fitted cabinets and looks out onto the charming rear garden. There is space for the usual white goods and for a table and chairs. From the kitchen there is a useful downstairs cloakroom, fitted larder cupboard and direct garden access. On the first floor a good sized landing with loft access and fitted cupboards gives entry to the three bedrooms and family bathroom. Bedrooms one and two are both good sized, light and airy double bedrooms. The third bedroom is a single bedroom or excellent home office. Completing the first floor is the family bathroom with bath and shower over, WC and wash basin. Outside, the garden offers a private haven, with an abundance of established plants, shrubs and trees. It has a small patio area which leads onto the lawn. At the rear of the garden there is a further seating area and useful shed with power. Gated side access leads you to the front of the house where you will find the driveway providing off-road parking.
