Location

The beautiful village of Ludwell is tucked away in a sheltered valley and benefits from a prize winning Post Office and General Store, family butcher, pub, farm shop and an excellent Primary School. Further benefits include stunning countryside walks, riding, fishing and cycling. The Saxon market town of Shaftesbury is located just 2 miles away and has an extensive variety of services to cater for many requirements including supermarkets, a hospital, doctors surgery, post office, green grocers and restaurants and an arts centre to name but a few. The area has strong communication links with the A30 providing access to both the A350 leading to the coast and the A303 providing access to London and the South West. A mainline railway station serving London Waterloo is located in the nearby village of Tisbury and a regular bus service to Shaftesbury and Salisbury.

Inside the Home

Occupying an elevated position of which maximises the countryside views, the ground floor comprises a spacious sitting room bookended with charming fireplaces whilst also displaying further characterful features including ceiling roses, picture rails and attractive panelling. The kitchen has been updated to a modern, light suite with great practicality from the plentiful storage cupboards and work surfaces. A further dining room, cloakroom and useful internal porch also feature. Upstairs the charm of the house continues with four well-proportioned bedrooms giving a sense of flexibility to the home whilst the principal room benefits from a wonderful sun terrace overlooking the garden. The family bathroom consists of a shower over bath unit.

Outside Space

Front: A driveway offers off-road parking with electric car charging point and a single garage provides useful storage. Steps lead to the house itself with established shrubbery providing bursts of colour. Rear: The rear garden has been beautifully landscaped by the current owners and features three tiers to include a patio, myriads of potted and planted shrubs along with a well-maintained lawn.
