This was the much-loved home of a lovely neighbour who lived here for many years. As someone who lives locally, I can honestly say it's a friendly neighbourhood and a lovely place to call home. It will be really nice to welcome a new neighbour to the street and see the house become someone else's home.

Situated on Crossfield Road in Barry, this three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a great opportunity for anyone looking for a property they can make their own.

The house has been well maintained over the years and offers two reception rooms, three good-sized bedrooms and plenty of flexibility for family living. While the property would benefit from some modernisation, this also gives the next owner the opportunity to update and personalise the home to suit their own style and needs.

There is also potential to extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions, providing scope to create additional living space in the future.

Outside, the property benefits from off-road parking and a detached garage, offering useful storage and space for a vehicle. The location is also within the catchment area for well-regarded schools, adding further appeal for families.

With its generous accommodation, useful outside space and scope to improve and add value, this is a property with plenty of potential in a popular area of Barry.
