Situated on Drubbery Lane in Blurton, this unique three-bedroom detached property occupies a sizeable plot and offers an impressive amount of versatile accommodation throughout!

The ground floor has been considerably extended, creating a particularly spacious and flexible home. The accommodation comprises a welcoming sun room, two reception rooms, a well-proportioned kitchen, downstairs WC, study and a sizeable utility room, providing an excellent range of living and practical spaces to suit modern family life.

The two reception rooms offer flexibility for both everyday living and entertaining, while the additional sun room provides a lovely further space to relax and enjoy views across the front garden. The study is ideal for those working from home, while the generously sized utility room adds valuable practicality and storage.

Upstairs, the property provides three good-sized bedrooms, all offering comfortable proportions and plenty of scope for individual use. The accommodation is complemented by a family bathroom. Externally, the property sits on a generous plot, providing a good amount of outdoor space and further potential for those looking to put their own stamp on the property. The addition of two garages also provides useful storage.

Overall, this is a generously proportioned detached home offering considerably more accommodation than might initially be expected. With its extended ground floor, three good-sized bedrooms, sizeable plot, versatile living spaces and two garages, it presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for a substantial family home with plenty of flexibility.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the size, accommodation and potential this property has to offer!
