Cannon House was originally converted under Class Q development planning permission 11 years ago and has become a comfortable modern home, which offers a flexible layout over 2 floors with plenty of natural light and retaining many period features. A spacious reception hall has stairs off to the first floor with gallery bridge over and window to rear overlooking the gardens and grounds. A large open plan kitchen dining/living room has range of free standing units and a central island with French Doors out to the gardens, boot room/lobby and a cloakroom/utility. Lovely living room with wood burning stove for those cosy nights and French doors to the outside. The side hallway gives access to a double bedroom and 4 piece family bathroom. A further double bedroom to the end has a vaulted ceiling and is an extremely versatile room which could be used for a variety of uses, currently a music room, but could be snug or office. To the first floor there is a 3 piece bathroom with shower over the bath, and 2 further bedrooms, one with French doors leading to potential balcony area. The property stands in approximately 0.45 acres in all and is approached by a 5 bar gate with long concrete hand standing to the front allowing plenty of parking. In addition there is also a further large parking area to the side suitable for a motorhome or similar. Formal rear garden principally laid to lawn with oak framed gazebo providing a covered seating area. Beyond the garden area is further grassland. The property has double glazing and calor gas central heating and is offered with NO CHAIN
