INTRODUCTION

This superb detached residence has been significantly extended and meticulously re-modelled by the current owners to create a family home of exceptional caliber. The sense of scale is immediate; a spacious entrance hallway, finished with Amtico flooring and underfloor heating, sets a sophisticated tone.

From here, elegant glass and black-panelled doors open into the stunning living kitchen, the true heart of the home, where two sets of bi-folding doors blur the lines between the interior and the garden. The upper floor is equally impressive, centered around a galleried landing leading to six double bedrooms. The principal suite features a dedicated dressing area and en-suite, complemented by a second en-suite bedroom and a further luxurious family bathroom. With specialist spaces for a gym, boot room, and three distinct reception rooms, this is a property designed for an effortless, modern lifestyle.

The property occupies a generous plot, with a block-paved and gravelled driveway providing extensive parking to the front. To the rear, the large garden is primarily lawned and framed by mature trees, featuring a substantial patio area perfectly suited for outdoor entertaining.

LOCATION

Copper Beech Close is an exclusive residential cul-de-sac situated off West Leys Park. Swanland is widely regarded as one of the most prestigious and picturesque villages in the East Riding of Yorkshire. Situated on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds, it offers a refined residential atmosphere around a quintessentially English village pond. Alongside the nearby villages of North Ferriby and Kirk Ella, Swanland remains one of the most desirable addresses for discerning homeowners in the region.

The village maintains a charming feel while providing easy access to high-end local services. Residents benefit from a range of amenities, including a traditional village pub serving food, a chemist, and convenience store with a post office. For more extensive retail needs, the nearby Anlaby Retail Park and Willerby shopping park are just a short drive away. The community-centric village hosts numerous events, contributing to the vibrant social fabric that defines local life. There is also a tennis and bowls club plus a recreational park with children's play area.

A significant advantage for families is the proximity to top-tier education. The village is home to the outstanding Swanland Primary School, consistently recognized for its academic excellence. For secondary education, the village falls within the catchment for the highly regarded South Hunsley School and Sixth Form College. Prestigious independent options, including Hymers College, Tranby, and Pocklington School, are also within easy reach.

Swanland provides superb regional connectivity for those who value a tranquil setting with quick access to the A63, which connects directly to the M62 motorway network and Hull city centre. For rail travel, the nearby stations at North Ferriby and Brough provides services to Hull, Leeds, and beyond, ensuring excellent links for commuters.

Accessibility to key destinations includes:

- Hull City Centre: Approx. 7 miles
- Beverley (Historic Market Town): Approx. 10 miles
- York: Approx. 34 miles
- Leeds: Approx. 54 miles

Beyond the immediate vicinity, the location offers unparalleled access to the beauty of the East Riding countryside. The nearby Yorkshire Wolds present a stunning landscape of peaceful walking trails and traditional villages. This area is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy exploration of the coast, including the dramatic clifftops and sandy beaches. The thriving market town of Beverley is nearby with the attraction of York still convenient yet a little more distant.
