The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Boasting elevated views over the market town of Haverfordwest, this attractive mid-terrace townhouse is rich in character and history. Retaining many original features including ornate fireplaces, arched alcoves and wide plank floorboards, viewing is highly recommended. The Grade II listed property is also conveniently located within walking distance to an array of local shops and cafes, with retail parks just a short drive away.

Upon entering the property you are greeted by welcoming entrance porch and hallway. Split of three levels, the property offers versatile accommodation for all the family. The ground floor comprises; the living room open fireplace, a formal dining room, and the open plan kitchen/breakfast room. A mezzanine level is located above the kitchen, and provides an additional seating area overlooking the garden. The first floor is home to two double bedrooms and a landing area which would make the ideal study space, or cwttch. On the second floor is a further two double bedrooms and the family bathroom. The property also benefits from gas central heating.

Externally, a tiered garden is located to the rear, and enjoys those lovely views over town. A patio area provides space for outside seating, where you can really envision dining al fresco, and soaking up the summer sun with family and friends. A garage with parking space is located to the rear, and is accessed off Hayguard Lane.

The market town of Haverfordwest has numerous facilities and amenities on offer, which include a good range of shops, retail parks, primary and secondary schools, sixth form, hospital, train station, new leisure centre/swimming pool, cinema, restaurants and pubs. The beautiful Pembrokeshire coast is only 6 miles to the south-west, at the long sandy beach of Broad Haven, and the famous surfing beach of Newgale 7.5 miles to the northwest. The famous Pembrokeshire Coast Path gives miles of walks on which to enjoy the stunning coastline, wildflowers, and birdlife.
