Description

Entering the property a spacious reception hallway has stairs rising to the first floor and doors into the kitchen / diner, lounge and into the ground floor cloakroom. There are two reception rooms; a bright lounge of good size which has a cosy log burning stove and French doors giving access into the garden to the rear, and a further family room which has been formed from conversion of the garage. The property has been extended to the rear to allow for a larger kitchen / diner which also has access into the rear garden. The kitchen is fitted in an extensive range of wall and base units with contrasting work surfaces over and tiled splashbacks, all providing ample storage space. There is plenty of room for appliances.

Rising to the first floor you will find four DOUBLE bedrooms. The master bedroom benefits from having use of its own, fully tiled en-suite shower room and access to a large balcony which enjoys views over the garden and open farmland beyond. Finishing the accommodation on this level is a large, family bathroom which comprises of a panelled bath, separate shower cubicle, wash hand basin and w.c.

As previously mentioned, the property sits on a good-sized, mature plot which wraps around the house. There is a large, loose stone driveway to the front, which is screened from the road via tall, privet hedging. In addition, there is a large, detached outbuilding to the side. The garden back and sides onto fields and offers a pleasant outlook.
