

This three bedroom property enjoys a great position with beautiful open views to the front and is only a short walk from the centre of Old Bolingbroke, in the heart of the Lincolnshire Wolds, much of which is designated as 'an area of outstanding natural beauty'.

The property has a double-gated driveway to the front which continues alongside the property leading to two garages, so could be ideal for a buyer needing parking for several vehicles. Internally the ground floor has a breakfast kitchen and separate lounge together with a cloakroom and a utility. There are three bedrooms to the first floor plus the bathroom and a second separate WC. The current owners have made a number of improvements during their ownership but also recognise that the property (and garden size) still offers a new buyer the opportunity to invest and add further value, which we believe has been reflected within the asking price.

Steeped in history, this picturesque village dates back to 1086 and features the remains of Bolingbroke Castle which was the birth place of King Henry 1V of England. The small market town of Spilsby with several shops, schools, restaurants and pubs is only 3 miles away and the village of East Kirkby which is home to the Battle of Britain Memorial is 2 miles away. The larger historic market towns of Horncastle and Boston are 8 and 16 miles away.
