CHESTERTONS

SHORT LET A beautifully presented, double-fronted townhouse positioned within a peaceful and discreet mews just off the highly sought-after Wilton Crescent. The residence has been interior designed by the world-renowned Katherine Pooley and has been meticulously finished throughout to an exceptional standard, reflecting a rare level of craftsmanship and attention to detail.

Located in the prestigious heart of Belgravia, this exquisite home seamlessly combines classic elegance with refined contemporary living. The well-balanced accommodation is arranged over four thoughtfully planned floors and includes a charming patio garden, a private terrace, and the added convenience of private parking directly to the front of the property.

Bespoke cabinetry features throughout the house, with the principle bedroom wardrobes finished with elegant hand-painted joinery, underscoring the exceptional level of detail found at every turn. The layout has been carefully considered to maximise every inch of available space, resulting in a highly functional yet luxurious living environment over the ground and lower-ground floors also including two study areas on the ground and first floor. Sleeping accommodation is set over the first and second floors with a principle bedroom with dressing room and en-suite bathroom and two further double bedrooms sharing a bathroom. An additional guest cloakroom is on the around floor as you enter.
