Offered for sale with no onward chain, this impressive period semi-detached home on Swinley Road is situated just a short walk from Wigan town centre and the beautiful Mesnes Park. The street is highly regarded for its fine Victorian and Edwardian homes, and this property is a superb example—combining generous living space with charming period features. Extending to an impressive 1,863 square feet, the property retains many of its original characteristics, including high ceilings, ornate coving, feature fireplaces, and attractive bay windows. Ideally located for easy access to the town centre, bus and train stations, local schools, the hospital, and major motorway links, this excellent family home perfectly balances convenience with character.

Internally, the property is well-presented and includes a newly fitted kitchen and bathroom, though it still offers scope for a buyer to complete some minor finishing works. The ground floor accommodation briefly comprises a welcoming entrance hallway, a spacious formal lounge with a feature fireplace, and a second large reception room (currently utilized as a bedroom). To the rear is a striking, open-plan kitchen/dining room featuring a newly fitted kitchen and direct access to a separate utility room. Up on the first floor, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms served by a newly fitted, modern family bathroom.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a fully enclosed, south-facing rear garden that is not directly overlooked. It also benefits from a double garage - a highly sought-after and rare feature for homes of this type. Early internal viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the sheer scale, character, and excellent position of this exceptional home.
