

Smithfield Hotel, Dounby, Orkney, KW17 2HT

Offers Over £575,000

K Allan Properties are delighted to present The Smithfield Hotel to the open market as a going concern. The Smithfield Hotel is positioned in the village of Dounby, on the West Mainland of Orkney, and is a short drive from the main local amenities and travel links in Kirkwall and Stromness. The current owners have been operating the business since 2011, and have built up an amazing reputation.

The hotel has 9 well-appointed rooms - 8 double/twin rooms with en-suite and 1 single room with an external private shower room. There is a further room, which is currently used as owner accommodation, but has the potential to be used as a 10th guest room. The hotel also has a public bar, restaurant and a café area. The café has been successfully run over the years, however this was closed when one of the directors partially retired earlier this year. There is off-road parking available to the rear of the property.

The hotel is located close to some of Orkney's best known Neolithic sights, such as Skara Brae and the Ring of Brodgar, and has been a popular pit stop for tourists, with bus tours carrying cruise ship passengers booking for lunches throughout the summer.

LOCATION

The hotel is situated in the village of Dounby, on the West Mainland of Orkney. Orkney is located 10 miles north of the Caithness coast and the Scottish mainland and is home to a population of approximately 22,000.

The Smithfield Hotel is situated 17 miles north west of Kirkwall airport, and a 15 minute drive from the main towns of Kirkwall and Stromness. Loganair provide regular flight services to the mainland to include Aberdeen, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Inverness airports. A ferry service is available from Kirkwall to Lerwick in Shetland and to Aberdeen on the mainland, with a further port provided at Stromness linking to Thurso on the north mainland. There is also another ferry from Gills Bay - St Margaret's Hope.
