welcome to

Tennyson Road, St. Albans

A well-presented three-bedroom detached house in the ever-popular Chiswell Green, offering two bright reception rooms, modern kitchen and bathrooms, a low-maintenance garden with decked seating, driveway parking and convenient access to local amenities, schools and fast rail links to London. The ground floor features two spacious reception rooms, currently arranged as a living/dining room and an additional sitting room with direct access to the garden. Large patio doors and neutral décor create a bright and airy feel throughout. The kitchen is fitted with contemporary units and offers a practical layout for everyday living.

Upstairs are three well-presented bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom with dressing room, alongside two further rooms ideal for children, guests or home working. Two modern bathrooms serve the accommodation, one featuring a bath with shower over. Outside, the enclosed rear garden is designed for easy maintenance, with artificial lawn, a raised decked seating area and planted borders. To the front, a block-paved driveway provides off-street parking. Chiswell Green offers a range of local amenities, including shops, cafés and restaurants, along with nearby green spaces and leisure facilities. St Albans city centre is within easy reach, while St Albans City station provides direct Thameslink services to London St Pancras in approximately 20–25 minutes, making this an excellent choice for commuters.
