Alexanders are delighted to introduce to the market a delightful village cottage believed to date back to the 17th Century. This charming property has been restored and refitted to a high specification, blending period features with contemporary additions.

Internally, this lovely home features a sitting room with log burner, a useful understairs cupboard and a door into the beautiful kitchen/diner, fitted with hand-built solid wood, Shaker-style units, a pantry cupboard and a second log burner. There is also a garden room to the rear, providing additional storage/utility space.

To the first floor, you will find a double bedroom with built-in storage and a traditional-style four-piece family bathroom. A further good-sized double bedroom can be found on the second floor, featuring a characterful exposed brick chimney breast.

To the rear of the property is an enclosed shared courtyard, from where the substantial workshop/garage is accessed. A shared pathway leads to the cottage's private lawned gardens, which are positioned separately from the house. The cottage gardens enjoy views towards the village church and incorporate a small seating area, fruit trees and a greenhouse.
