Property Description

A beautifully refurbished four-bedroom Victorian semi-detached residence, seamlessly combining timeless period charm with contemporary luxury. This exceptional home has been thoughtfully finished to an impressive standard, retaining its original character whilst incorporating elegant modern finishes throughout. From the outset, the property makes a striking impression with its distinctive Imperial brick façade, traditional Victorian-style decorative tiling, bespoke entrance door and elegant brass exterior lighting. Internally, the property showcases an exceptional level of craftsmanship and attention to detail, with carefully selected materials and high-quality fittings throughout. The welcoming entrance hall sets the tone, featuring Antico Décor flooring, elegant chevron flooring with satin gold inlays, bespoke mouldings and impressive high ceilings. Subtle brass accents and refined architectural detailing flow throughout the home, creating a sophisticated yet welcoming atmosphere. The ground floor offers an impressive 22ft reception room, providing a spacious and elegant setting for both relaxing and entertaining, leading through to a stunning 20ft extended kitchen/dining room at the heart of the home. Beautifully designed in an elegant sage and porcelain colour scheme, the kitchen features luxurious quartz worktops, premium integrated appliances, a range cooker and stylish cabinetry, offering the perfect balance of style and practicality. Expansive bi-folding doors open directly onto the rear garden, allowing natural light to flood the space whilst creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living, ideal for both everyday family life and entertaining. Available immediately and offered unfurnished.
