Guide Price £350,000

Situated in the highly sought-after village of Woolpit, this delightful semi-detached cottage combines period charm with contemporary convenience and benefits from a versatile garden pod with countryside views. Believed to date from the early 1900s, the property features a traditional painted brick exterior beneath a tiled roof and has been extensively improved by the current owners, creating a flexible and beautifully presented home set within attractive gardens.

The accommodation briefly comprises a front door opening into an entrance porch, with a further door leading to a spacious and versatile hallway, offering ample space for a sideboard or desk whilst being conveniently located to the kitchen, lending itself equally well as a dining area. The light and airy sitting room features attractive oak flooring, a range of fitted cupboards, and a fireplace with an inset wood-burning stove. French doors open directly onto the rear garden, creating an excellent connection between indoor and outdoor living. A separate dining room enjoys a bay window and decorative cast-iron fireplace. This flexible space could be used as a formal dining room, snug, or third bedroom, depending on individual requirements. The newly fitted kitchen offers a range of storage units and generous work surfaces with an integrated oven, gas hob and extractor above. Further integrated appliances include fridge/freezer and dishwasher. A door leads to the garden, while a further door opens into the recently refitted ground-floor shower room, comprising a walk-in shower, vanity wash basin with storage drawers beneath and WC. On the first floor, a bright landing with additional storage provides access to two well-proportioned bedrooms, both benefiting from built-in storage.

The property further benefits from UPVC double glazing throughout along with gas-fired central heating.

Outside

To the front of the property is a pretty cottage-style garden with a low retaining wall and decorative wrought-iron gate. The fully enclosed rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn and is attractively planted with a variety of mature shrubs and flowers. A private patio adjoins the house, while to the side there is a substantial pergola with decking, providing an ideal space for al fresco dining and entertaining. Additional external features include a greenhouse and a generously sized storage shed. There is a wood store at the bottom of the garden. A particularly notable feature of this delightful cottage is the garden pod, which benefits from power, lighting and French doors opening onto the garden. Offering views across the surrounding countryside, it provides an ideal space for home working, a gym, hobby room, or additional living accommodation depending on buyer requirements.
