A quite extraordinary detached house in a Narnia-like woodland setting. Wren's Nest Cottage represents a unique opportunity to acquire one of the area's most historic properties, parts of which date back to the early days of the Duke of Sutherland's Trentham Estate. The property has been a labour of love for its present owners who have been in residence for 27 years, transforming this once modest property into a fabulous family home which is beautifully presented throughout, retaining its period charm whilst catering for every requirement of twenty-first century living. The main house is complemented by an adjacent self-contained annexe which is ideal for an independent family member, holiday rental or long term let. The gardens extend to approximately 1.35 acres which is predominantly natural woodland interspersed with areas of formal garden, a range of outbuildings and even two caves.

Adjoining utility room on the end of the building with external access. The annexe is ideal for accommodating extended family, use as a holiday let or business use.

Domestic Outbuildings

The property has an extensive range of outbuildings suited to a variety of uses including; detached 2 car garage, wooden workshop which has previously been used as a photographic studio, storage container and a wooden 'house in the trees'.

Gardens

The gardens are best described as 'stepping into Narnia' and are as varied as they are extensive. Wren's Nest Cottage sits in a sunny hollow and is surrounded by natural woodland inter-woven with areas of formal garden and oodles of space for outdoor living and entertaining. There is a children's play area, steps leading to a raised wooden deck which is a great vantage point over the plot with accompanying tree house and woodland paths to a secret garden and a large natural pond. Some of the original features dating back to the days of the Duke of Sutherland's Estate include a priest's cave and subterranean ice house. The plot extends in total to approximately 1.35 acres.

The Area

Wren's Nest Cottage is hidden in plain sight on the edge of Tittensor village, mid-way between Stone and The Potteries. Tittensor village has a thriving community with a highly commended primary school, busy village hall and local shop / post office. Just over a mile away lies the spectacular Trentham Gardens where 725 acres of natural beauty, award winning gardens and ancient woodland lie in await of exploration, together with a unique outdoor shopping village and regular events. The renowned Wedgwood Visitor Centre, are is within 2 miles of the property and there are two popular golf clubs within 10 minutes drive.
