Shickle Place, Hopton, Diss, Suffolk, IP22 2QR

Three bedroom detached family home with driveway located in the well-served village of Hopton. The accommodation on the ground floor comprises an entrance hall, WC, spacious dining room featuring a fireplace and sitting room with sliding doors into the sunroom. The kitchen is fitted with an induction hob and built-in oven. The former garage has been thoughtfully converted to provide a practical boot room and useful utility area, complete with an additional hob and sink, space for a dishwasher and washing machine, and extensive wall-mounted units for storage.

Moving to the first floor three bedrooms can be found, with the principal offering an ensuite with shower, the family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Externally, the front garden is laid to shingle, with a driveway providing off-road parking and a pathway leading to the front entrance. The rear garden is predominantly paved creating generous space for outdoor seating whilst remaining low maintenance, complemented by shrubs and a small lawned area leading to a summer house.
