Nestled within the sought after historic quarter of Helston, is this appealing three bedroom 'attached' character cottage with a delightful garden and ornamental pond.

This handsome stone fronted residence offers a wealth of period features including picture rails, window seats, authentic wood flooring and, of course, wood burning and multi fuel stoves to add to the cosy cottage ambience.

The striking Oriel bay window in the master bedroom provides the perfect viewpoint from which to enjoy the Flora Day dancers as they pass by.

A generously sized open plan kitchen and dining area is well suited to cater for family gatherings and social entertaining, whilst the lounge with a wood burning stove is perfect for those nights in by the fire during cooler months.

On the first floor are three double bedrooms, two with authentic wood flooring and an elevated outlook towards the cottage gardens and sun patio. A nicely appointed family bathroom with a panelled bath and separate shower cubicle complete the upstairs accommodation.

Outside the enclosed cottage garden is a real highlight, being attractively stocked with specimen plants and trees and enjoying good degrees of privacy. An ornamental pond adds to the sense of calm, with an adjacent sun patio seemingly the ideal place from which to experience it. The outside space is complemented by a courtyard area with an outbuilding providing useful storage.

Located within a Conservation Area that preserves the historic quarter of Helston, the property is delightfully and conveniently positioned for all that the town has to offer.

The accommodation in brief comprises an entrance hall, kitchen/ dining room, lounge, utility room, bathroom and three bedrooms.

Helston serves as the gateway to the stunning Lizard Peninsula and provides an excellent range of amenities including national retailers, a cinema, leisure centre with indoor swimming pool, and a selection of shops and eateries. The beautiful Penrose Estate links the town to the coast and offers miles of picturesque walks and cycle routes—perfect for enjoying the very best of this beautiful part of Cornwall.

Cross Street is regarded as one of Helston's most historic streets and is on the traditional route of the Flora Day procession, Helston's celebration day'
