McEwan Fraser Legal are delighted to present this spacious, two-bedroom, end-terraced house, well situated in the heart of Cowdenbeath, to the market. Presented in excellent condition, the property enjoys a quiet position at the end of a family-friendly cul-de-sac. Benefits include an extensive family kitchen, gas central heating, double glazing and a private rear garden. Viewing this property is highly recommended.

THE LOUNGE

Internally, the accommodation is in excellent decorative order, briefly comprising an entrance vestibule leading to the inner hallway, a lounge with a large window letting in an abundance of light, a bright kitchen with an integrated gas hob and oven with extractor fan and access to the rear garden through the rear door; the dining area has space for a table and four chairs.

THE KITCHEN

Upstairs there are two large bedrooms, one of which includes built-in storage. There is ample storage throughout the upper floor. The wonderful three-piece family bathroom is also located on the upper level.

THE BATHROOM

BEDROOM 2

The property is set within good-sized garden grounds which are landscaped, fully enclosed and screened to the rear for privacy and seclusion. This property also benefits from gas central heating, full double glazing and more than adequate unrestricted on-street parking to accommodate visitors.

THE LOCATION

Cowdenbeath lies in south-western Fife. It is some 5 miles north-east of Dunfermline and 18 miles north of the capital, Edinburgh. Cowdenbeath has its own railway station situated just off the High Street, and is on the Fife Circle Line with a half-hourly service to Edinburgh. The nearby Halbeath Park and Ride allows for onward travel to Edinburgh, Edinburgh Airport, and Glasgow.

There are three primary schools in the town, and Cowdenbeath is also served by one secondary school, Beath High School, where Ian Rankin, the author of the Inspector Rebus novels, attended. Ian Rankin is just one of a number of notable people from the Town. The town offers a medical practice, library, and post office along with a good variety of shops. Cowdenbeath Leisure Centre is located next to Central Park in the centre of the town and has a swimming pool, gym, indoor sports facilities and three all-weather pitches for tennis or football. A small skatepark is situated outside the leisure centre. There are a number of playing fields situated around the town. The western perimeter of Cowdenbeath merges into the neighbouring village of Hill of Beath and is bound by the natural landscape of the gentle slopes of the hill itself, and by Loch Fitty. The proximity of the M90 motorway to the south of Cowdenbeath, and to the east to a lesser extent, also serves to define its lower boundary. The northern boundary of Cowdenbeath is characterised by a rural landscape, which merges into the Lochore Meadows Country Park, a very picturesque area that provides leisure and recreational outdoor amenities.
