Tucked away in the idyllic hamlet of Brook, just a few miles from the charming coastal town of Laugharne—famed for its association with poet Dylan Thomas and only 2 miles from the stunning 7-mile beach of Pendine Sands, this delightful three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a rare blend of tranquillity, space, and potential.

Set within mature gardens and approximately 6.68 acres of private woodland and paddock, the property enjoys a peaceful and picturesque setting, with a gently flowing brook enhancing the sense of calm and seclusion. The historic township of Laugharne, home to the iconic Laugharne Castle overlooking the Taf Estuary, is within easy reach and offers a range of independent caf s, pubs, and scenic coastal walks, including access to the renowned Wales Coast Path.

Requiring modernisation, the house presents an exciting opportunity to create a bespoke family home or undertake a rewarding investment project. Internally, the accommodation is arranged over two floors, with the ground floor comprising an entrance porch with W/C, a kitchen, and a living/dining room offering excellent scope for reconfiguration. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally, the established gardens and surrounding woodland provide a wonderful sense of privacy and space, with potential for selective clearing to create additional usable land or a paddock. The grounds have previously benefited from outline planning permission for a three-bedroom dwelling, making this an especially appealing prospect for those considering development or multi-generational living (subject to the necessary consents). Ample driveway parking is also available.

Combining village charm, coastal proximity, and significant scope for enhancement, this is a rare opportunity to create a truly special home in a highly sought-after location. Early viewing is highly recommended.
