There is also a laundry room on the first floor, which is ideally positioned to allow washing and drying to be carried out in one practical space.

The glazed staircase rises to the second floor, where there are two further double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes and a modern bathroom servicing the two bedrooms.

Since owning the property the current owners have landscaped the rear garden which provides a pretty sanctuary and a lawned area and boundary flowerbeds which continues down the side of the property. To the front of the property is a driveway and parking for two cars.

Viewing is advised for this superb family home and the owners are suited to a chain.
