Queens Park

Queens Park is a well-loved green space located on Court Oak Road in the heart of Harborne, postcode B17. Established in 1898 to commemorate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, the park has been an important recreational and community hub for more than a century. Set across approximately 10 acres, it combines open lawns, mature trees, woodland areas and modern leisure facilities, making it one of Harborne's most attractive public parks.

The park is particularly popular with families, joggers, dog walkers and local residents seeking a peaceful outdoor environment close to Birmingham city centre. Wide accessible tarmac pathways run through the park, linking shaded wooded areas with open grass spaces that are frequently used for football, picnics and informal recreation. There are children's play facilities, basketball courts and tennis courts, providing year-round sporting opportunities for the local community.
