The Property

A three bedroom semi-detached house offering an extremely impressive plot situated at the end of a peaceful cul-de-sac, located within an established area of older Didcot .

The property offers spacious and well-proportioned accommodation comprising of an entrance hall, a bright living room, fitted kitchen, separate dining room, and a convenient ground floor WC.

On the first floor are two generous double bedrooms, a well-sized single bedroom, and a family bathroom.

Previously approved plans for a two-storey extension highlight the property's exceptional potential for further enlargement and enhancement (subject to any necessary consents), making it an ideal opportunity for buyers looking to create their forever home.

Externally, the property benefits from an expansive driveway providing off-road parking for up to five vehicles. The substantial plot offers excellent scope to extend to the side and rear (subject to the necessary planning permissions). The private rear garden measures in excess of 100ft in length and approximately 67ft in width, providing a peaceful outdoor space bordered by mature oak trees.
