Cain & Fuller

A superb opportunity to acquire a charming Cotswold stone cottage located in a highly sought after position on the edge of Cirencester close to a selection of local facilities and amenities including Cirencester Park parkland open to the residents of Cirencester on a Daily basis ideal for a variety of country pursuits. Stratton is an area to the north of the town centre which benefits from a range of local facilities including a post office/convenience store, two public houses, hotel and well renowned primary school. The cottage has been extended and lovingly restored in recent years to now present an interesting living space with the benefit of a good-sized garden to the rear and off-road parking for one vehicle to the front on a gravelled driveway. To the ground floor there is a stunning lounge with exposed beams and large inglenook fireplace, recently refitted modern kitchen/diner with direct access to the secluded rear garden and useful hall with utilities area. To the first and second floors a selection of well-proportioned bedrooms and a recently refitted modern stylish family bathroom with bath and fitted shower. Decoration is warmed throughout by a gas fire central heating system and benefits from a selection of double glaze windows through the cottage. Externally, the property benefits from a large garden to the rear with established entertaining space. Cottages in Albion Street are rarely available we think this is a unique opportunity, call the vendors sole agent for a viewing Cain & Fuller in Cirencester.

Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 30,000 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.
