Situation
The river meadow at Scoope Bridge is situated in the highly attractive Taw Valley in North Devon, in an accessible location just off the A377 between Chulmleigh and Umberleigh. Access is particularly convenient, being via a short private track leading from the A377 and crossing the Tarka Line railway line. Chulmleigh is approximately 6.5 miles, whilst the market town of South Molton is about 10 miles.

Description
The land is predominantly level and comprises good quality river meadow, amounting to 30 acres, and is suitable for grazing or mowing, with the River Taw forming the eastern boundary.

Access
A short track from the A377, crossing the Tarka Line railway, provides good vehicular access.

Tenure
The land is owned freehold and is registered on the Land Registry. Vacant possession is available from the completion date.

Wayleaves and rights of way
The property is sold subject to and with the benefit of any wayleave agreements and any public or private rights of way that may affect it. There are no public rights of way passing through the land.

The fishing rights associated with the land adjoining the River Taw are available by separate negotiation. Should the fishing rights be sold separately, the necessary rights of access along the river bank for the benefit of the fishing, river bank maintenance and including the fishing hut will be reserved.

Plans
A plan is included with these sale particulars for identification purposes only. The land is outlined and shaded in green on the plan.

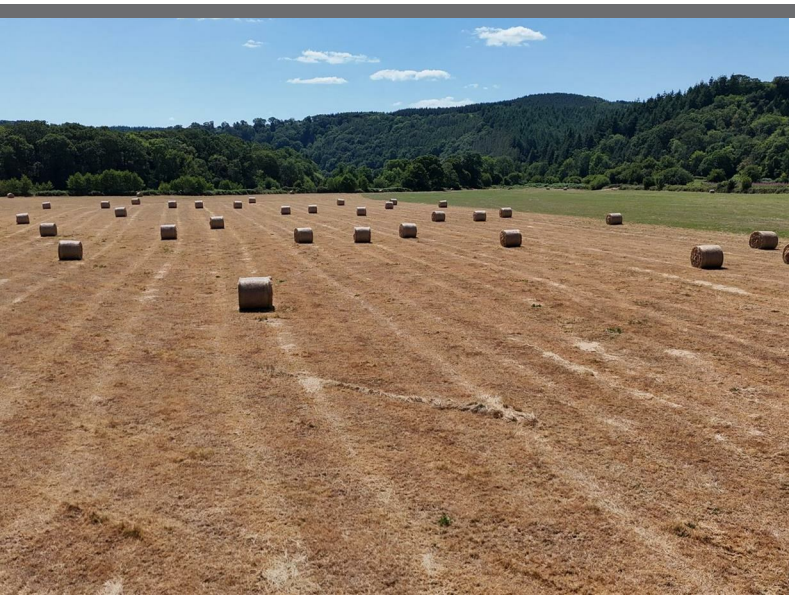

Viewing
Strictly by confirmed prior appointment through the sole selling agents, Stags on 01769 572263.

Directions

From Umberleigh Bridge continue south on the A377. After three miles there is an unmarked left turn that leads to the land and fishing. Please take care at the crossing over the railway line. Please close all gates.
