1 Plum Green

Finsthwaite, Ulverston

Set within the peaceful and highly desirable village of Finsthwaite, this charming period cottage dates back to 1800s and offers a rare opportunity to acquire a home steeped in local history. Surrounded by beautiful countryside and positioned close to scenic walks including High Dam, the village itself is a hidden gem within the Lake District National Park. With a strong sense of community, a traditional village feel, and easy access to nearby Newby Bridge and Ulverston, it offers the perfect balance of rural tranquillity and convenience.

The ground floor offers a traditional layout with a kitchen space ready for modernisation, providing a blank canvas for buyers to create something truly their own. There is a cosy lounge centred around a wood burning stove. A ground floor bathroom is fitted with a bath and wash basin. Upstairs, the property features two well proportioned double bedrooms, both enjoying a pleasant outlook over the surrounding area.

Externally, the property benefits from a detached garden located a short distance from the cottage, offering a lovely space to enjoy the peaceful surroundings. There is also a useful store room currently used for a wood store. A public footpath runs nearby, giving direct access to the surrounding countryside and making this an ideal spot for those who enjoy walking and the outdoors. Finsthwaite is on the West Windermere Way, near the Stott Park Bobbin Mill, Lakeside as well as Hawkshead, Newby Bridge and Ulverston. Overall, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a no chain, characterful home in a truly special village setting, with huge potential to enhance and add value.
