Situated on Wellingborough Road in the popular and traditional village of Earls Barton, this detached home offers generous living space and a flexible layout suited to family life. The property has an individual design and includes four to five well-sized double bedrooms, providing plenty of room for growing families or those needing additional workspace.

Inside, there are three reception rooms that offer a variety of uses, whether for relaxing, entertaining, or working from home. The kitchen/diner forms a central part of the home and provides a comfortable space for everyday meals as well as social gatherings. A separate games room adds further versatility and could also be adapted for hobbies or additional living space, or create a fifth bedroom.

The property includes two refitted bathrooms, helping to ensure practicality for busy households.

Outside, the spacious south-easterly facing rear garden enjoys open views and offers a pleasant outdoor space for relaxing, gardening, or spending time with family and friends. To the front, there is ample off-road parking for several vehicles, along with a double garage.

Earls Barton offers a range of local amenities including shops, schools, and leisure facilities, all within easy reach. Combining space, flexibility, and a convenient village location, this property presents a great opportunity for those looking to settle in this well-regarded community. Don't miss a rare opportunity to make this remarkable house your new home.

Earls Barton

Located in Northamptonshire off the A45, 9 miles from the centre of Northampton and four miles from Wellingborough, Earls Barton has a population of 5,387 (as of 2021). This is a tranquil, friendly village with lovely views and plenty of open space for walking in the rec or surrounding areas. Like any good village essential requirements are all within walking distance or a short drive away.

The village is proud of its historic roots, All Saints Parish Church was built by the Saxons in 970 AD and is still in use today. More recently Earls Barton's claim to fame comes from making 'Kinky Boots' – the inspiration for the film bearing the same name.

The Soapbox Derby has been in the social calendar since 2018, an idea proposed to the Parish Council by a passionate 10-year-old resident. Roads are closed off for the race and this is now a much-anticipated village event for the fun, generosity and community spirit it brings.

The Annual Festival and Carnival in June is another popular event which includes – Literature, Comedy, a dog show and an Arts Exhibition. The Festival Fortnight is rounded off with a Carnival, stalls, beer tent and live music.

At the end of the year, you can enjoy Carols on the Square. A stage is set up for readings and a band. There are also song sheets for everyone to join in with the festive spirit.

Earls Barton is proud of its local independent enterprise led by Northamptonshire's long association with boots and shoemaking. There is also the renowned Apothocoffee Shop on the Square – a family business since 1870.

If you want to enjoy a great sense of community where the Parish Council is an active body of residents, representing local needs, look no further.

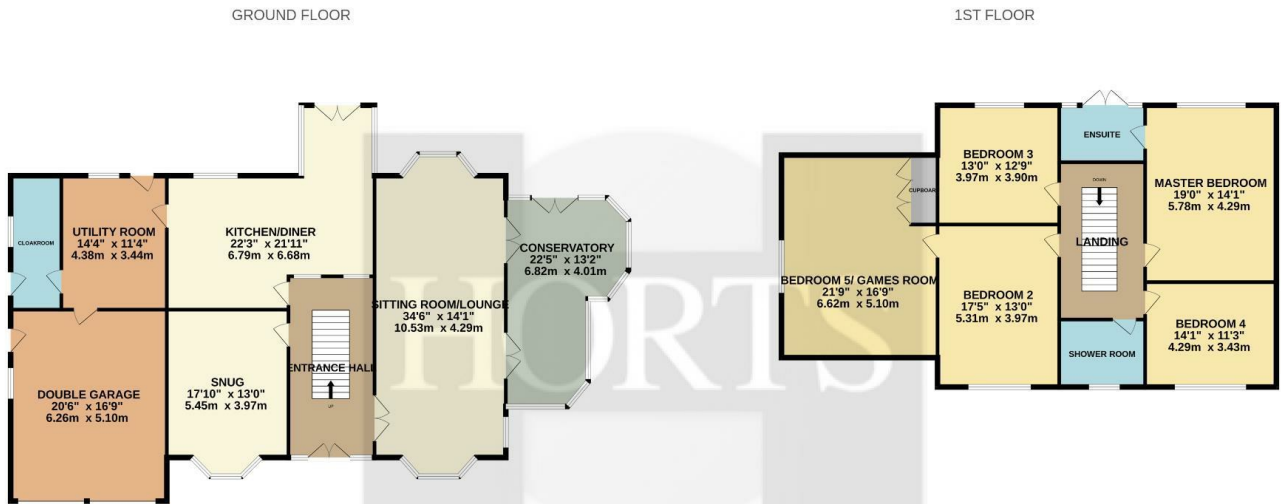

A move to Earls Barton will give you back your time and your peace of mind. There is an effortless blend between old English charm and modern amenities which makes living here a real joy.
