The entrance hall leads into a comfortable lounge with a gas fire and deep-set front window. The kitchen has solid wood units, an under-counter oven and four-ring gas hob, opening into a separate dining room with patio doors onto the rear garden.

A useful utility/sunroom provides space for the washing machine and tumble dryer, as well as direct access outside.

The level gardens are a real practical advantage, with lawned areas to the front and rear, a rear patio and access from both sides of the bungalow. There is off-road parking for around three vehicles, a garage, greenhouse and substantial 16-foot garden shed, providing plenty of useful storage and hobby space plus an addition small shed. A stream runs along the far boundary with an additional bank behind adding a pleasant feature to the garden.

The property has gas central heating and uPVC double glazing and is offered with no onward chain. The accommodation is well maintained and functional, while the straightforward layout provides scope for a buyer to make it their own. The master bedroom and adjoining bathroom also offer useful flexibility for those considering multi-generational living or a degree of separation within the home.

With its genuinely level plot, generous outside space, parking and flexible bungalow layout, this home provides a very rare opportunity for its new buyer

CREDITON is a vibrant market town with a bustling high street full of independent shops, eateries, and pubs. In recent years a diverse arts scene has grown to include all manner of mediums, with the performing arts making use of the town's market square where, in the summer months, a range of activities take place. The market square is also home to the town's twice-monthly farmer's market. The town has an equally significant past. It was originally the first Bishopric in Devon and the imposing Parish Church of The Holy Cross now stands where once stood Devon's first Saxon cathedral (909-1050AD). It is also the birthplace of Saint Boniface, one of the founding fathers of the Christian church in Europe. Easily commutable to Exeter and with two primary schools, a secondary school with sixth form as well as a wide range of necessary amenities, it's clear why the town is a firm favourite with locals and relocators alike.
