Welcome to this charming three-bedroom semi-detached house, ideal for first time buyers and situated in a sought-after location. With excellent public transport links, great nearby schools, and a wealth of local amenities close at hand, it truly is a fantastic place to call home.

Step inside to discover a neutrally decorated interior, offering a fresh and versatile backdrop for you to add your personal touch. The spacious living room is perfect for relaxing or entertaining, featuring double patio doors that open onto the low maintenance garden—an ideal spot for sunny afternoons and alfresco dining.

The smartly arranged kitchen comes complete with generous dining space, allowing for easy family meals or hosting friends. For added convenience, there's a handy downstairs W.C.

All three bedrooms are well-proportioned, with the master boasting built-in wardrobes for stylish storage. The second bedroom is a good-sized double, while the third makes a perfect single bedroom or even a handy home office. The first floor also offers a family bathroom.

Enjoy the peace of mind of an excellent EPC rating of B and the benefit of council tax band B, keeping running costs reasonable. Parking for two vehicles adds to the daily ease, making coming home a breeze.

This lovely home offers the perfect blend of comfort, style, and convenience—all in a wonderful location. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make it your very own! Please note estate charges may apply.
