STUNNING PERIOD END-TERRACE COTTAGE BELIEVED TO BE ONE OF COTTINGHAM'S OLDEST HOMES, OFFERING CHARACTERFUL LIVING WITH THREE RECEPTION ROOMS, TWO BEDROOMS, GARAGE AND AN EXCEPTIONAL 150FT+ GARDEN IN A PRIME VILLAGE LOCATION.

Nestled along George Street in Cottingham, this exquisite end terrace cottage is a true gem, believed to be one of the oldest properties in the village. Offering a delightful blend of character and modern living, this home features three reception rooms and three bedrooms, making it ideal for small families or those seeking extra space.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a cosy lounge, complete with a log burner that adds warmth and charm. The additional sitting room and a versatile study provide ample space for relaxation or productivity, with the potential to convert the study into a third bedroom if desired. The kitchen and day room, adorned with vaulted ceilings, create an airy atmosphere perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying family meals. The property boasts two spacious double bedrooms, with the main bedroom featuring a lovely en-suite bathroom, alongside a convenient downstairs shower room for guests. Recent upgrades enhance the appeal of this charming residence, including new double glazing by Coral Windows, installed just last July, and a brand-new boiler fitted only four weeks ago, ensuring comfort and efficiency. Externally, the home further benefits from a garage, providing secure parking or additional storage.

The expansive rear garden extends approximately 158 feet, showcasing a variety of features including a lush lawn, vibrant flower borders, a sun deck, patio area, summerhouse, shed, and greenhouse. This outstanding outdoor space is perfect for both tranquil moments and lively gatherings. Situated in the heart of Cottingham, residents will appreciate the proximity to a diverse range of shops, amenities, and the train station, all just a stone's throw away.
