

Kingston Road, KT3

£360,000

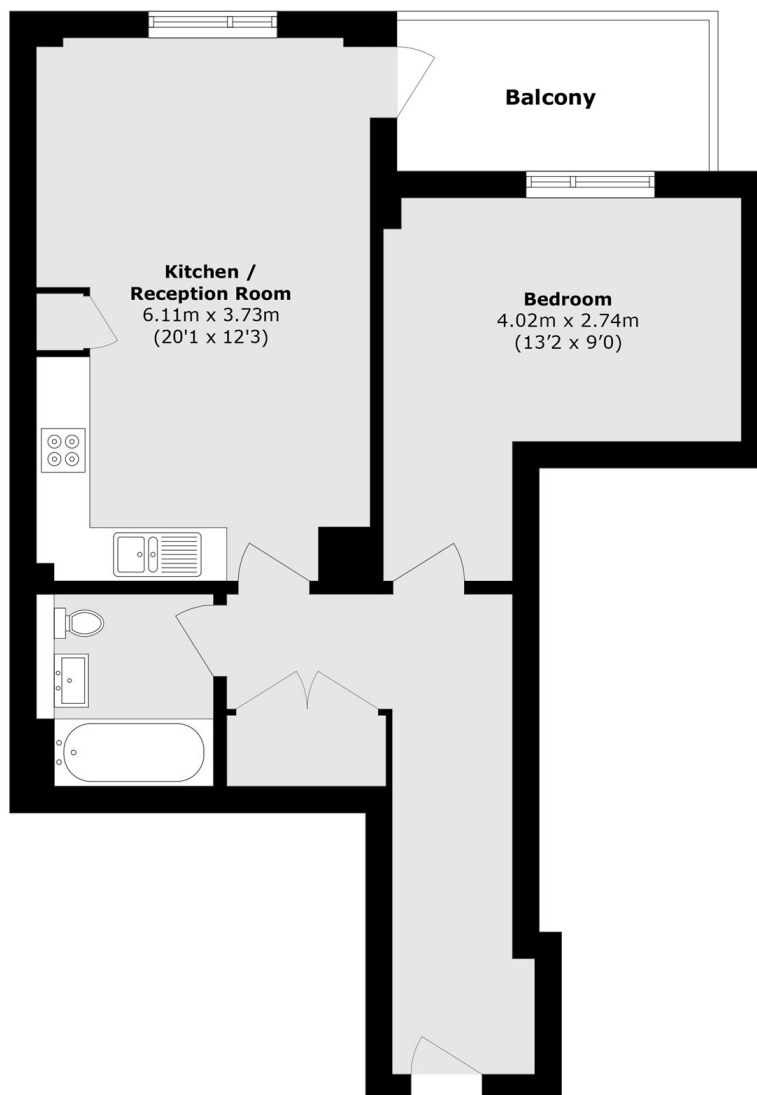

A beautifully presented larger than average modern one bedroom apartment. The property offers plenty of space throughout in a very light and airy setting. There is a wide inviting hallway with built in storage off it and a generous double bedroom overlooking the balcony. The lounge is open plan with a fully integrated modern kitchen with plenty of space for dining. There is also a good sized private balcony

Seathwaite House forms part of the exclusive Kingston East development moments away from a supermarket, post office, shops and restaurants, as well as a newly opened dental practice that forms part of the development. There are also bus stops close by and you are a mile to Kingston town centre and less than a mile to New Malden Station and High Street.
