This beautifully refurbished three-bedroom period home offers stylish, contemporary accommodation arranged across three floors, with a superb standard of finish and an abundance of natural light throughout.

The ground floor is designed around an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and reception space, creating a sociable and versatile heart to the home. The sleek contemporary kitchen features extensive cabinetry, generous work surfaces and a central peninsula, while doors at the rear open directly onto the garden. A convenient guest WC completes this level.

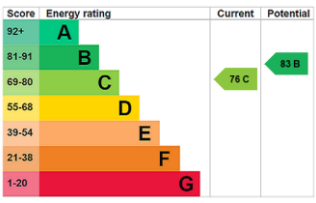

On the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms, both benefiting from built-in storage, alongside a beautifully finished family bathroom with contemporary fittings and elegant marble-effect tiling.

The entire top floor is dedicated to the principal bedroom suite, providing a peaceful and private retreat with fitted storage and a striking bathroom featuring a freestanding bath, separate walk-in shower and skylight bringing in plenty of natural light.

Finished in a fresh, modern style throughout, the property also benefits from wood flooring, excellent storage and a private rear garden, while retaining the attractive façade and character of a period home.

Offering three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a guest WC and generous open-plan living space, this thoughtfully refurbished property provides an excellent balance of style, practicality and flexible accommodation for modern living.
