A rare opportunity to acquire one of the two approximately 110 ft. stretches of freehold river frontage with the potential for residential moorings on the Thames at The Hollows, Brentford. Positioned directly opposite Brentford Ait, each expanse of river frontage occupies an exceptional stretch of Thames frontage with panoramic views towards Kew Bridge and the surrounding landscape of Kew. The potential moorings are available individually or together, subject to obtaining the necessary PLA licencing, could offer flexibility for those looking to create a private floating home or explore a larger waterside proposition. Each 110 ft. freehold plot provides an unusually generous length of river frontage, with potential for further moorings, floating homes or other waterside uses, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions and the PLA approvals. Acquiring both provides the opportunity to assemble the full 220 ft. frontage and consider a more substantial residential or waterside scheme subject to necessary consents.
