Sundial Cottage Friday Street, Weston-sub-Edge GL55

500

Sundial Cottage is situated just 1.5 miles from the historic market town of Chipping Campden, renowned for its Cotswold stone architecture, boutique shops, and vibrant cultural scene. Weston-sub-Edge enjoys excellent road access via the B4035, connecting you easily to nearby towns and amenities. While the village does not have an active train station, the nearby Honeybourne station (approximately 5 miles away) offers direct rail services to Worcester and London Paddington, making it a viable location for commuters.

The surrounding area is rich in local attractions. Just a short walk from the property is Dover’s Hill, a scenic view point and the traditional site of the historic Cotswold Olympic Games. The village also lies on the renowned Cotswold Way – a 102-mile National Trail stretching to Bath – offering endless opportunities for walking, hiking, and exploring. For nature lovers, Weston Park is close by, offering nearly 200 acres of ancient woodland, perfect for weekend strolls and outdoor activities.
