To the rear sits a separate galley-style kitchen, finished to a modern standard and providing direct access to the rear garden. The first floor comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms along with a stylish family bathroom, all presented in good condition. The property also benefits from double glazing throughout and a combination boiler, contributing to a comfortable and energy-efficient home, reflected in its EPC Rating C. Externally, the rear garden is a standout feature, offering a generous and private outdoor space with decking and a charming treehouse, ideal for families and outdoor entertaining. Importantly, the property offers excellent scope for further development, including potential for both a loft conversion and rear extension, subject to planning permission, allowing buyers to significantly increase living space and add value. Further benefits include a low council tax band of D and a highly desirable location within the London Borough of Redbridge, with access to well-regarded schools, local amenities, parks, and strong transport links, making it ideal for commuters and families alike. Goodmayes Station (Elizabeth line) is walking distance alongside Goodmayes retail park. For investors, the
