Location

Bayberry Mist lies in a quiet, semi-rural location, to the North-West side of the small village of Small Dole and located approximately midway along New Hall Lane and lying to the North side. Small Dole includes a local shop, The Fox pub and village hall and more extensive facilities can be found at Henfield to the North-East, approx. 2.5 miles away which offers a wider range of local shops, facilities and schooling.

The old market town of Steyning, approx. 5 miles distant, also has a thriving local community centred around its traditional High Street and offers similar facilities to Henfield including primary and secondary schooling and with each community having health, sports & fitness centres and libraries.

The A27 via the Steyning Road (A283) is approx. 5 miles to the South and provides access to the city of Brighton & Hove which has an excellent range of all facilities. Shoreham-by-Sea, approx. 6.75 miles to the South, has a mainline railway station (with services along the South coast to Gatwick and London Victoria), a small airport and a harbour. Hassocks to the East also has a mainline railway station and is approx. 7 miles distant, while the A23 (also to the East) is about 7 miles and provides access to Gatwick airport and to the national motorway network as well as to London and other major centres. Haywards Heath is approx. 16.5 miles and also offers a mainline railway station and similar facilities are available at Horsham to the North. There is a good range of independent and state schools in the area. Public footpaths are accessible on New Hall Lane.
