DESCRIPTION

Located on the vibrant and historic Walmgate stretch of York city centre, this well-presented first-floor apartment offers modern open-plan living within easy reach of shops, cafés, restaurants and key transport links.

The property features a spacious open-plan kitchen/living room, offering generous room proportions, contemporary units and space for dining and relaxation. A well-sized double bedroom and a modern bathroom complete the layout, all accessed from a central hall. The apartment is light, practical and ready to move into, making it ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers or those seeking a reliable city-centre rental investment.

St Denys Court sits just moments from Walmgate's independent cafés, bars and eateries, as well as supermarkets, riverside walks and the city walls. York's main attractions, Fossgate, Piccadilly and the city centre are all within a short stroll. Commuters benefit from excellent bus links and straightforward access to York Station.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a rare opportunity to secure a well-located apartment in one of York's most characterful and convenient central districts.
