The Old Post Office

2 Oxford Street, Eddington, Hungerford, Berkshire, RG17 0ET

Guide £495,000

A fabulous three storey property situated in a convenient location at Eddington, just on the outskirts of the town.

Description

The property retains great character throughout and includes a sitting room with bay windows, good ceiling height and a fireplace with a woodburner. The kitchen has been tastefully refitted sitting in a smart contemporary style, blending well with exposed wall beams, a gas fired range and engineered real wood (walnut) flooring, which runs throughout the ground floor. The kitchen has ample room for a table, with double doors leading to the garden to create a very sociable and relaxing space. There is also a useful downstairs cloakroom/utility room. Stairs rise to the first floor where there are two bedrooms and a nicely fitted bathroom that includes a shower. The second staircase leads to the top floor bedroom which has good natural light and excellent fitted storage. Outside there is a small part walled garden which offers an enjoyable outside space without the burden of time consuming maintenance.

Hungerford

The historic market town of Hungerford has a range of local shops and is renowned as an antiques centre. It is bordered by Freemans Marsh and Portdown Common with the Kennet & Avon canal flowing through. The town has a doctors surgery, public library, two supermarkets, a primary school, secondary school and also a nursery school rated outstanding by Ofsted. There are also pubs, restaurants and numerous leisure activities and clubs. The M4 motorway can be joined approximately 3 miles to the north and there is a rail service from the town to Newbury, Reading, London (Paddington) and the West Country (Reading to Taunton line).
