PROPERTY DESCRIPTION: The property offers spacious, well-presented accommodation with two generous reception rooms providing flexible living and dining space. A bright dining kitchen is fitted with timber units, integrated appliances, range-style cooker and a waste disposal to the sink, with space for a family table and door into the utility / play room.

There are four double bedrooms, each comfortably proportioned and well finished, together with two modern bathrooms, including a stylish family bathroom with contemporary tiling. The welcoming hallway and landing enhance the sense of space, while a double garage and driveway provide excellent storage and parking. Solar panels with Tesla battery support the strong EPC B rating. There is also an electric car charger point.

The south-facing rear garden is a particular highlight, with level lawn and porcelain-tiled patio creating an attractive setting for outdoor dining and play.

Ponteland is highly regarded for its amenities, schools and transport links. Ponteland High School and first/middle schools are within easy reach, while the village centre offers supermarkets, cafés, restaurants and independent shops. Nearby Ponteland Park and the riverside walks provide pleasant green space.

Public transport is convenient, with regular bus services into Newcastle. For rail and Metro, the airport is a short 15 walk away which will connect you to the City Centre and beyond.

This impressive family home combines efficient modern features with generous accommodation in a prime Ponteland location.
