Loaf Cottage The Street, Battle, TN33 0QB Offers In Excess Of £375,000 Freehold

Just off the picturesque village green in the heart of Sedlescombe, this substantial semi-detached character home is a rare and distinguished find — chain free and bursting with charm. Brimming with light, space and timeless character, it offers an enviable blend of period elegance and modern family versatility. Inside, high ceilings and large, elegantly proportioned windows fill every room with natural light, creating a welcoming and airy atmosphere. The sitting room, centred around a striking feature fireplace, exudes warmth and character, while the dining room provides an impressive setting for entertaining. The spacious kitchen/breakfast room, paired with an adjoining utility, forms the heart of the home — practical, sociable, and perfect for family life. Upstairs, all three bedrooms are generous doubles, the principal bedroom enjoying a graceful double aspect and fitted wardrobes. The broad landing enhances the sense of space, while the shower room is stylishly appointed and well proportioned. Externally, the property offers parking and a garage, while a private courtyard garden provides a charming outdoor retreat. For families, the nearby recreation ground acts as a natural extension of the garden, offering space for children to play or enjoy village life just moments from the home. Sedlescombe itself is highly desirable, with its shop, post office, pub, restaurant, doctor's surgery and primary school, alongside scenic countryside walks. Battle station offers direct services to London, and the area is well served by both state and private schooling. Rarely does a home of this size, character and central setting come to the market. A distinguished and elegant village residence, overflowing with light, space and period charm — a truly exceptional opportunity to secure one of Sedlescombe's most desirable homes.
