Luxury Three-Bedroom Apartment with Terrace & Concierge | Short Let (Min. 2 Months) | Westminster

A beautifully refurbished three-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment available for short let, offering stylish, turnkey living in the heart of Westminster—ideal for professionals, families, or those seeking a premium Central London base.

Positioned on the fourth floor of a secure development with lift access, the apartment is finished to a high contemporary standard throughout. The bright and spacious reception area is flooded with natural light and opens onto a full-length balcony and private terrace, enjoying a peaceful south-facing aspect overlooking green parkland—an uncommon luxury in such a central location.

The apartment is well suited for comfortable medium-term stays, with generous living space, well-proportioned bedrooms, and modern kitchen and bathroom facilities designed for convenience and ease.

Residents benefit from a 24-hour concierge service, with optional housekeeping arrangements available—making this an excellent choice for corporate stays or those relocating to London.

Located on Page Street, you are moments from some of London's most iconic landmarks, including Big Ben, Buckingham Palace and Tate Britain. Westminster Underground Station is a short walk away, providing excellent connectivity across the city.

Local amenities are superb, with supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, and essential services all within easy reach. A range of independent gyms and fitness facilities are also available within walking distance.

Additional benefits include all bills (utilities, council tax and high-speed WiFi) included, parking permit available with up to 90% off Congestion Charge (located inside Congestion charging zone).

This is an exceptional short-let opportunity combining comfort, convenience, and a prime Westminster location.
