Situated in a highly sought-after village location and offered with no onward chain, this delightful home has been well maintained and tastefully enhanced by the current owners.

Constructed with a traditional timber frame, rendered elevations and tiled roof, the cottage is rich in character features throughout. The front door opens into a welcoming and well-appointed sitting room centred around an impressive inglenook fireplace with exposed brickwork, substantial bressummer beam and inset wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting focal point. A door leads through to the kitchen/dining room, which has been newly fitted with a range of attractive kitchen units, generous preparation work surfaces, an integrated oven, hob with extractor above and space for a fridge/freezer. The kitchen is perfect for both informal dining and more formal entertaining, providing an excellent space for social gatherings and family meals alike.

Beyond the kitchen is an inner lobby with a useful storage cupboard and access to a newly installed shower room comprising a walk-in shower, WC and wash hand basin. Also accessed from the kitchen is a bright and airy utility/boot room with direct access to the garden, offering versatile additional space suitable for a variety of uses. An adjoining study provides an ideal environment for home working, this could also be used as a bedroom.

Stairs rise from the sitting room to the first-floor landing, where doors open to two well-proportioned bedrooms, both bright and airy and enhanced by attractive exposed beams that further reflect the property's historic character.

This charming cottage presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented period home, with gas central heating, in a prime village setting.
