Offered for sale with no onward chain, this well-presented one-bedroom end-terrace home would make an ideal purchase for a first-time buyer, downsizer or buy-to-let investor. Benefiting from uPVC double glazing, gas central heating and the valuable addition of off-road parking, the property is ready for immediate occupation.

Situated in a peaceful and sought-after location, just a short stroll from the River Mersey promenade and Vale Park, the property is also conveniently placed for the excellent range of shops, restaurants and leisure facilities available in New Brighton, including Marine Point and Victoria Quarter.

A fantastic opportunity to acquire a low-maintenance home in a highly desirable coastal location. Early viewing is recommended.
