Three Bedroom Semi-Detached Home / Extended & Reconfigured Accommodation / Converted Garage & Wet Room / Secluded Rear Garden /
Barr Beacon Views / Chain Free

Occupying a desirable position on Aviemore Crescent towards the top of the sought-after Park Farm Estate, This well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a thoughtfully reconfigured and extended layout providing versatile living accommodation ideally suited to modern family life.

The property enjoys an attractive position close to well-regarded local schools, amenities and excellent transport links, while also benefiting from a wonderful outlook towards the Barr Beacon, creating a pleasant semi-rural feel.

From the outset, the property boasts excellent curb appeal, with a private frontage providing off-road parking for multiple vehicles.

A secure sliding porch door leads into the welcoming entrance hall, where the property's versatile layout becomes immediately apparent. Located just off the hallway is a useful office/study space, providing an ideal area for those working from home, studying or requiring a dedicated workspace away from the main living accommodation. A particularly notable feature is the converted garage, which has been transformed into a versatile additional living space. Benefiting from insulation, gas central heating and double glazing, this area could lend itself to a variety of uses, whether as a second reception room, playroom, home office, hobby space or additional family accommodation. The converted garage also benefits from a convenient wet room, comprising a walk-in shower, W.C and wash hand basin. The main lounge provides a comfortable and welcoming environment, having been tastefully decorated to create a cosy yet practical space for relaxing and entertaining. Sliding patio doors provide direct access onto the rear garden, allowing plenty of natural light into the room and creating a seamless connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces. The extended kitchen provides an excellent amount of additional space for both culinary activities and dining, with the extension enhancing the practicality of this important family area. The kitchen features a good range of wall and base units, alongside space for freestanding appliances, while further access to the rear garden adds to its convenience and functionality.

Ascending to the first floor, the property offers three bedrooms, comprising two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a comfortable third bedroom suitable for a single bed, child's bedroom or additional study space. The rear-facing double bedroom is a particular highlight, enjoying beautiful views towards the Barbican Hills. This outlook provides a wonderful sense of openness and gives the property a distinctive semi-rural feel despite its convenient residential setting. The accommodation is completed by a well-appointed family shower room, fitted with a shower unit, wash hand basin and WC, together with a useful airing cupboard. There is also the added convenience of a separate W.C positioned just off the bathroom.

Externally, the property continues to impress. To the front, there is off-road parking for multiple vehicles, while the rear garden provides a fantastic private outdoor space. The secluded rear garden backs directly towards the Barr Beacon, meaning the property benefits from a good degree of privacy and is not overlooked from the rear. The combination of the greenery, elevated outlook and surrounding landscape creates a peaceful and semi-rural atmosphere, making the garden an ideal space for relaxing, entertaining or enjoying the outdoors.

Overall, this is a versatile and thoughtfully reconfigured family home offering considerably more accommodation than may initially meet the eye. With its converted garage and wet room, extended kitchen, dedicated study area, three bedrooms, private rear garden and attractive views towards Barr Beacon the property provides an excellent balance of practicality, flexibility and privacy.
