Occupying a wonderful private position within one of the area's most highly regarded village locations, this substantial detached residence offers approximately 3,250 sq. ft. of versatile family living accommodation set within magnificent mature grounds approaching 1.3 acres.

Tucked away in an outstanding off-road setting, the property enjoys a high degree of privacy and tranquillity whilst remaining conveniently positioned for local amenities, highly regarded schooling and beautiful surrounding countryside. The established gardens are a particular feature of the home, offering a fascinating variety of mature planting and open lawned areas creating a delightful backdrop for both family life and entertaining.

The accommodation is both spacious and adaptable, ideally suited to growing or multi-generational families, with up to six bedrooms and four well-proportioned reception rooms providing flexibility for home working, leisure or guest accommodation. The layout offers excellent versatility and further potential to tailor the space to individual requirements.

Externally, the property is complemented by a double garage together with extensive parking facilities. To the rear, the gardens back directly onto Heather Hills, providing immediate access to ancient woodland and picturesque walking trails, perfect for outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers alike.

The location is particularly sought after, being within easy reach of the highly regarded Elm Green Preparatory School, the popular Paper Mill Lock and Tea Rooms, together with the renowned Olio On The Ridge Italian à la carte restaurant.

A rare opportunity to acquire a substantial family home in an exceptional private setting with beautiful grounds and superb access to both village amenities and surrounding countryside.
