Location

The rural village of Dinton lies between Salisbury and Tisbury, on the chalk downs which divide the valleys of the Nadder and Wylde. Local stone is used extensively in the north of the village and there are several historic properties nearby, including Wilton House.

Residents benefit from a large recreation ground hosting thriving sports teams, a village hall, two well-supported pubs and a primary school with a Good rating. In addition, there are a number of stunning countryside walks including the Dinton National Trust Park & The Two Mills on the Nadder walk.

Tisbury railway station and the A303 are a short drive away, and buses run to and from Wilton and Salisbury four times a day.

Inside the Home

A Beautifully presented two-bedroom penthouse style apartment, backing onto open grassland fields, located within the quiet Wiltshire Village of Dinton, with stunning countryside views from both the front and rear.

The spacious accommodation, which is full of light, includes an entrance hall, large dual aspect kitchen/dining/living space with built in appliances to the kitchen, two large double bedrooms, the main with ensuite shower room, and a further family bathroom, with built in storage and airing cupboard.

Externally there is allocated parking for two vehicles, along with further visitor spaces, as well as a communal garden, which is shared between the 5 apartments within the block.

Outside Space

Outside, to the front of the property, there is allocated parking for two vehicles as well as a communal area for bin storage. There are six additional guest parking spaces.

There is a communal garden area that is mainly laid to lawn and enclosed to all sides with wooden fencing and mature hedging. The communal garden offers a wonderful countryside setting, backing onto open grassland.
